

Opt-Out Policy

Learning Ally is committed to respecting the privacy of both our online and offline donors. The organization uses donors' information to understand their interests in our mission and to update them on the organization's plans and activities. Information on occasion is shared with staff, board members, volunteers and consultants only on a "need-to-know" basis. The organization also assures donors that their names and addresses will not be shared with any third party unless permission has been granted. An opt-out provision is offered for those who do not wish to be included on a mailing list, and/or do not want their name exchanged with other organizations.

Learning Ally does not rent or lease its donors' information. If any donor has concerns at any time in this regard, they are encouraged to contact us and inform us of their preferences.
