

A Proven Solution to Turn Your Struggling Readers Into Independent Learners

Supported by the Florida DOE

Learning Ally is a leading edtech nonprofit organization that provides a solution to help students with learning differences by providing access to grade-level materials, increasing word exposure, and building vocabulary and reading stamina. As a result, they become more engaged, confident learners who are able to reach their fullest academic potential and thrive in the classroom and beyond.

The Learning Ally audiobook solution includes:

Extensive library of audiobooks

Engage students to become empowered learners with access to grade-level content, including K-12 literature, popular series and textbooks

Teacher-focused tools and resources

Support via a dedicated account manager, customized information based on instructional environment and grade level, student incentive programs and progress monitoring tools

Multisensory accessible technology

Features include word highlighting, variable speed control, bookmarking, notetaking and more

Total access on audiobook reading app

Students have access anytime, anywhere via PCs, Macs, Chromebooks, and iOS and Android devices such as smartphones, iPads and tablets.

My students with dyslexia are reading books that they would normally never be able to read. They are able to read the same books that their peers are reading, and have a discussion — that is huge.”

Anne Hooper, Santa Rosa School District Education Teacher
